

WORKSHOP

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Conducted by

National Library Research Division

2018

National Library and Documentation Services Board

Ministry of Education

Introduction

Development of research in any field is very instrumental for the development of the respective fields. The main advantage of the conducting research is the generation of new knowledge which is important for education and development. To fulfill that responsibility, National Library and Documentation Services Board in Sri Lanka will be organizing a two days workshop on Research Methodology for those who are interested in Library and Social Science research field.

Workshop objectives

- To understand the principles and applications of social science research
- To recognize the fundamental concepts of qualified quantitative research
- Development of research proposals
- Abstracts : Using appreciated research methodology
- Select statistical tools for data analysis
- Use select appropriate style of preparing bibliography

Course Content

- Introduction about research and research process
- Research Paradigm
- Methods of Data Collection
- Design a Questionnaire (Practical activity/Discussion)
- Survey methods on sampling
- Proposal writing
- Data analyzing and usage of SPSS
- Reporting (Abstract/Bibliography)

For whom

Academics, policy makers and researchers, undergraduates and postgraduates students those who are interested in research field.

Resource Persons

Workshop sessions and other activities will be guided by professionals in the field

Venue

Main auditorium

National Library and Documentation Services Board

No 14, Independence Avenue

Colombo 07

Duration of the workshop

02 days (full day) from 02nd and 03rd August, 2018

From 9.00 am to 4.00 pm.

Medium

Sinhala / English

Course Fee

For undergraduate students - Rs. 1000/-

For Post graduate students / other officers/participants - Rs. 3000/-

(This is includes morning and evening refreshments, lunch and course materials)

